Glunz & Jensen ready to show a new of line innovative flexo platemaking solutions at Label Expo 2017

RINGSTED, DENMARK - July 19, 2017; Glunz & Jensen, the leading manufacturer and supplier of flexographic plate processing equipment for the tag/label, narrow web, packaging and corrugated industry, will be exhibiting at Label Expo 2017 Europe in Brussels, Hall 7 - stand E41.

Glunz & Jensen will introduce a complete new line of flexo plate processing equipment, FlexPro, and exposure systems, FlexPose. These new products will be available for plate formats of: 900 x 1200 mm (36 x 47"), 1200 x 1600 (47 x 63") and 1320 x 2030 mm (52x80")

The new FlexPose and FlexPro systems will set new standards for exposure and processing latitude, enabling them to work with the latest digital plate technologies. The benefits are reduced exposure times and enhanced processing quality and latitude.

"Label Expo is a great place to meet up with all our valued partners around the world", says Jacques Dutard, General Manager, at Glunz & Jensen. "We very much look forward to introducing our latest technologies in flexo plate making to our partners and flexo print customers."

What is more, the next generation Flex-In-One 260 S, for solvent flexo platemaking will also be introduced at Label Expo.

Glunz & Jensen also offers complete automated flexo plate making solutions with our FlexLine system, and plate mounting systems – the FlexMount family.

"We invite you to come and visit us at Label Expo, Hall 7 - stand E41, to learn more about our latest innovations in flexo platemaking", says Jacques Dutard.
